4. FIEP Europe Action Plan 2021 - 2024

After eight years of working in two FIEP leading positions (FIEP World International Vice-president, FIEP Europe President) Branislav Antala proposed change in position of FIEP Europe President for period 2021 – 2024 due increased number of obligations in his position of FIEP World International Vice-president during Covid-19 pandemic and his responsibilities related preparation of worldwide celebrations of 100 anniversaries of FIEP in 2023. He recommends for this position Dario Novak, many years FIEP Europe General Secretary. Branislav Antala will give continuing support to Dario Novak in his new position and will help him as an advisor and chair of FIEP Europe secretariat in Bratislava.

Dario Novak is an associate professor at the University of Zagreb and a research associate at Institute for Anthropological Research, Croatia and represents new younger FIEP generation. He received his Ph.D. in sports science from University of Zagreb in 2010. He is a postdoctoral fellow of Columbia University, New York and Harvard University, Boston. Dario Novak's research interests lie in integrated and holistic approaches in the field of human health & performance. An editor of one book and author of over 200 publications in scientific and sports journals, Dario Novak has offered several keynote and invited presentations, and over 50 conference paper presentations. He has received both the FIEP Europe Thulin Award 2011 from the International Federation of Physical Education (FIEP Europe) and International FIEP Cross of Honor Award from the International Federation of Physical Education (FIEP World). In 2017 was recognized by the FIEP Mexico at Mexico City where he has received the Medalla Prof. Adolfo Pérez Acosta as an outstanding scholar for his contributions to educational research. In addition, he was the recipient of the 2015, 2016 and 2017 University of Zagreb, Faculty of Kinesiology, Best Young Scientists Award. In 2018 the National Science Awards Committee, formed by the Croatian Parliament, has selected Doctor Novak for precious Annual Award for Junior Researcher. It is granted to the outstanding young scientists in recognition of their scientific and research activities. In 2019 he received the Ambassador of Physical Education Award for human health and performance promotion. He speaks excellently English. He is involved in FIEP work already more as fifteen years and he served last eight years as a FIEP Europe General Secretary.

Basic structure and ideas of FIEP Europe Action Plan 2021 – 2024 are already prepared. Dario Novak will lead final preparative works on FIEP Europe Action Plan.
